

Champions are required to establish electronic community watch networks

AlertBox builds on the neighbourhood watch concept by adding an electronic dimension; this gives people at home and at work the ability to communicate instantly with their neighbours in times of need.

Government and charitable sector funding is available, in most instances, for communities who want to establish an AlertBox network.

We need local champions to get projects established. If you can help, get in touch with us.

Discover how to help your community

Call 0870 240 1970